MARKET VAN BUREN

Daywi Cook serves as the Clerk of Covert Township, she was elected to the post in 2016. Previously she served as its Deputy Treasurer. Prior to serving Covert Township, she moved to Chicago to obtain a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Loyola University – Chicago, where she majored in Marketing, Public Relations and Advertising, with a minor in Management.

Upon graduation, Mrs. Cook accepted a role with Entertainment Cruises, in Chicago where she worked as its Accounts Payable Supervisor and went on to be the Marketing Production Supervisor. Following eight rewarding years at Entertainment Cruises, Mrs. Cook moved back to Southwest Michigan, to raise a family and help revitalize the community she grew up in. She and her husband worked as independent contractors helping businesses and entrepreneurs thrive, designing and implementing web sites for businesses of all sizes.

Today, Mrs. Cook dedicates her time toward her family and improving the quality of life for Covert Township residents. She lives with her husband and two young children in their home town of Covert, Michigan.

Mrs. Cook serves on the following community boards and committees: Covert Township Board, Covert Park Advisory Committee, Van Buren County United Civic Center Member, Safe Kids Greater South Haven, Active Shooter Preparedness Committee, and the Rev. A.E. Lowe-Grice Scholarship Foundation Board.
